

OBITUARY.

THE REV. LEONARD MALKMUS.

PATERSON, Aug. 25 (Special).—The Rev. Leonard Malkmus died last evening in the monastery of the Franciscan Fathers. He was eighty-two years old and was said to be the oldest priest in New Jersey. For sixty-three years he was a member of the Franciscan Order, fifty-nine of which he had been a priest. The funeral will be held in St. Bonaventure's Church.

Father Malkmus was born in Hunfeld, Hesse, October 15, 1815. When twenty years old, after completing his education in the University of Wurzburg, he entered the Franciscan Order and took the solemn vows three years later. He was ordained on September 21, 1839, and said his first mass on his twenty-fourth birthday, October 6, 1839. In 1843 he was made Master of Novices; three years later became professor of theology. From 1847 to 1852 he was pastor of the church in Fulda and he left this important post to take the still more important pastorate in Salzburg. He served there until 1854, when he was sent to Superior in Salzburg. From 1855 to 1868 he held the important place of Professor of Theology at Salzburg. He served in the War of the Rebels and came Guardian in Fulda, where he had held a place until 1868, when he went to act as Superior in Salzburg. He was then appointed to the Capuchin Fathers, adopting their manner of dress, although not actually in the order. The Capuchins, however, are a branch of the Franciscan family.

Father Malkmus left the Old Country in 1868 and came to America, where his first work was the establishment of the convents, one in this city and another in Croghan, Lewis County, N. Y. He served as Superior in Croghan until 1881, when he was while in Croghan that he received the appointment of Superior of the Capuchin Fathers, adopting their manner of dress, although not actually in the order. The Capuchins, however, are a branch of the Franciscan family.

Father Malkmus left the Old Country in 1868 and he had served ever since. In 1881 he celebrated his golden jubilee as a priest and in 1885 he celebrated his silver jubilee as a member of the Franciscan Order. He was well-known to the German churches of Brooklyn and did much work in that district. Among his friends he received the appellation of "John Larus," owing to the name he had celebrated and also "the Senator" on account of his age. His fact that a familiar man in Paterson, and his fondness for children made him a prime favorite among the little ones.

MRS. ELIZABETH A. G. T. HORN.

Mrs. Elizabeth Anna Gertrude Tiemann Horn, eighty-nine years old, died at the home of her grandson, Edwin A. Horn, No. 45 South Second-ave, Mount Vernon, yesterday morning. She was the widow of Albert Horn, who died several years ago. Mrs. Horn was born in this city and was related to John Stephen, the can builder, and their seven children live in the house in South Second-ave, Mount Vernon, and she had other children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren in other parts of the United States.

Norwich, Conn., Aug. 28.—A telegram received here to-day from Cornwall-on-the-Hudson announced the death of John F. Rathbone, one of the best-known newspaper men in the eastern part of this State. He was at one time city editor of "The New York Evening Telegram." Mr. Rathbone had been at a sanitarium at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson for about five weeks for treatment for Bright's disease. He was forty-seven years old, and he leaves two sisters, one of whom is the wife of ex-Congressman Joseph Hendrix, of Brooklyn.

HENRY HOFFMAN.

Saratoga, Aug. 28 (Special).—Henry Hoffman, of No. 132 Fulton-st., Brooklyn, died this evening in the Saratoga Hospital. On August 11 he fell down a flight of stairs in the hotel, where he was staying. He remained unconscious for several days and death resulted from cerebral hemorrhage. He was a retired machinist, and had been an annual visitor here for a quarter of a century. He was unmarried. Relatives will arrive to-night and take charge of the body, which will be taken to Brooklyn.

MARQUIS CONYNGHAM.

London, Aug. 28.—The Marquis Conyngham, who sat in the House of Lords as Baron Minster, is dead. He was born in 1852, and was vice-admiral of the fleet and the Prince of Ulster. He adopted the Earl of Mount-Charles, who was born in 1852. The deceased peer was the fourth Marquis Conyngham.

WILLIAM HINCHMAN.

William Hinckman, a retired grocer, of No. 20 Grove-st., died yesterday morning at his home, from heart weakness. He had been travelling with his son Robert, the private secretary of Coronel Tuthill, and the son's wife, but left them at Niagara Falls a few days ago. Mr. Hinckman was well known in the Ninth Ward. His wife died about a year ago.
